

July 18, 1957

Funeral Services Held for Max H. Bahr of Turton

Doland.—Funeral services for Max Henry Bahr, 55, were held Saturday, July 6, at the Lutheran church in Ferney, where Mr. Bahr was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran faith and was a devout member until his untimely death on July 2, at the Peabody hospital in Webster.

The Rev. R. M. Grundmeier, of St. John's Lutheran church in Groton officiated. The soloist, James Julson, of Groton sang "The Lord is My Shepherd" and "Be Still My Soul," accompanied by Joan Erdmann of Verdon at the electric organ. Burial was in the Groton cemetery.

Mohs Funeral Service of Webster was in charge of arrangements.

Max Henry Bahr, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Max Bahr, Sr., was born November 10, 1901, at Ferney. He grew to manhood in the Ferney vicinity and on March 14, 1931, he was united in marriage to Vivian Taylor. Three children were born to this union.

In 1945 Mr. Bahr purchased a farm near Turton, where he and his family have since lived. They have made many friends in the Turton community.

Survivors include his widow; one son, Max Wesley of Turton; two daughters, Ellen of Aberdeen and Lois at home; two brothers, Ben Bahr of Groton and Dick Bahr of North Ford, Ore.; two sisters, Mrs. Roy (Vienna) Hoops of Verdon, Mrs. Martha Nehls of Groton; two half sisters, Mrs. Alvin (Louise) Hoops of Groton and Mrs. Edwin (Edna) Schley of Webster.

Casket bearers were Albert Bahr, August Grieben, Bernard Grieben, Max Linse, Raymond Dobberpuhl, Harry Mayer and Clarence Hausvik. Friends and friends from away who attended the funeral included: Mrs. Henry Novak and family of Fargo, N. Dak.; Max Linse, Denton, Mont.; John Linse, Missoula, Mont.; Mrs. Joe Parr and daughter, and Mrs. Taylor and Norbert and family of Livingston, Mont.—